

BAELc3 - Third Bonn Applied English Linguistics Conference

From 23rd to 24th May 2014, the Third Bonn Applied English Linguistics Conference with a special focus on Intercultural Communication will be held at the English Department, University of Bonn, featuring a keynote by Anne Barron (Leuphana University Lüneburg).

The programme for both days is as follows:

Friday, 23 May 2014
13:30-14:00	Registration
14:00-14:15	Klaus P. Schneider (Bonn)	Conference opening
Chair: Pawel Sickinger
14:15-15:00	Julia Salzinger (Dortmund)	Glowing reviews glow from within but glittering careers are illuminated: Interaction between language, perception, and cognition
15:00-15:45	Susanne Mohr (Bonn/Koblenz-Landau)	Informations on researches and knowledges: Mass nouns in East African Englishes
15:45-16:15	Coffee break
16:15-17:00	Edit Ficzer (Oxford)	A comparison of politeness strategies used in a letter of complaint by English, Hungarian and Thai writers
Chair: Klaus P. Schneider
17:00-18:00	Keynote lecture: Anne Barron (Lüneburg)	"Oh ok. (.) Yeah, do you have like Christmas exams or anything?" Constructing small talk in learner - native speaker voice-based telecollaboration
18:00-24:00	BAEL @ Wissenschaftsnacht (Säulenhalle) Academic Communication in Multimedia Environment

Saturday, 24 May 2014
Chair: Susanne Strubel-Burgdorf
9:00-9:30	Inken Mays (Bonn)	"Hiiiiii, byeee." The development of pragmatic competence regarding phatic communication during a stay abroad in Canada
9:30-10:00	Jing Zhang (Bonn)	Do the Chinese learners of English use the same strategies to respond to compliments in Chinese and in English? A study on compliment responding

10:00-10:30	Coffee & Poster session
	Elisabeth Hampel (Bonn) "Hi girl, help me!" English requests for help by Ghanaian and German students
	Karolina Jagodzinski (Bonn) "Want cheese? Buy your own!" Cross-cultural differences in realizing the speech act of complaint between English and Polish speakers in shared flats
	Valeria Melis (Bonn) „May I carry your suitcases?“ Offers in English English and the English of German learners
	Mariana Sygin (Bonn) Do compliment responses by Ukrainian young Adults differ in English and Ukrainian languages?
10:30-11:00	Monika Miszczuk (Bonn)	"Thanks, I really appreciate that" Strategies for expressing gratitude used by Polish and British English native speakers
11:00-11:30	Gaby Axer (Bonn)	The use and perception of the like-button on Facebook: Do German and Australian English native speakers behave alike?
11:30-12:00	Lisa Lehnen (Bonn)	Gender stereotypes and discursive strategies in Online Dating: A Contrastive Study of US American and Spanish Males
12:00-14:00	Conference lunch
Chair: Klaus P. Schneider
14:00-14:45	Cornelius Puschmann (Berlin)	Orthographic variation as sociolinguistic variable in CMC
14:45-15:30	Ilka Flöck (Oldenburg)	Directive speech acts in British and American English: A contrastive, multi-method approach
15:30-16:15	Verena Minow (Bochum)	"Nigga, you ain't supposed to be droppin' names an' shit" The use of vocatives in The Wire
16:15-16:30	Klaus P. Schneider (Bonn)	Conference closing